JCM Global Announces Leadership Reorganization at Las Vegas Office

LAS VEGAS (June 13, 2015) – Building on recent positive momentum in the company, JCM Global President Hikaru “Terry” Izawa has announced a leadership reorganization at JCM’s Las Vegas office.

Effective immediately, the following individuals will assume these roles and take on critical responsibility under Mr. Izawa:

- John Garner, Chief Financial Officer
- David Kubajak, VP of Operations
- Tom Nieman, VP of Marketing and Interim VP of Sales

Additionally, JCM is seeking to fulfill the position of Director of Product Development and will explore all options, both internal and external.

“This is an exciting period of growth, and we are happy to announce this leadership reorganization that we believe will further position the company for even stronger growth and long-term stability. We are confident these changes will put JCM on a pathway toward even greater success, and I am very pleased to have John, David and Tom in these new positions,” Izawa said.
