JCM AMERICAN RECEIVES GAMING LICENSE RENEWAL IN MISSISSIPPI

Company Renewed as Manufacturer/Distributor for Three Years

LAS VEGAS – Leading currency-handling manufacturer JCM American Corp. (JCM) has received a renewal of its license by the Mississippi Gaming Commission. The Company was renewed as a manufacturer/distributor for a term of three years. The Commission also renewed a license for JCM's parent company, Japan Cash Machine Co. Ltd., as a manufacturer and suitability as a greater than five percent shareholder in JCM American.

JCM Director of Compliance Erik Batzloff said, "We are gratified that the Mississippi Gaming Commission has determined JCM American to be a gaming business in good standing and renewed our license. We have held a Mississippi license since 2001, and we have been fortunate to have experienced a great deal of success in that jurisdiction."

A wide range of JCM products are currently in use in casinos across Mississippi, including private and tribal casinos. JCM is the nation's leading supplier of bill validators to the gaming industry, currently holding over 80 percent market share. The Company's bill validators have an average acceptance rate of 97 percent, and are largely credited with revitalizing the gaming industry when they were introduced in the early 1990s.

JCM currently holds 68 gaming licenses and certificates in the U.S., Canada and the Caribbean Basin.
